U MA PRUPONI NI' KUMITEHAN AREKLAMENTON I MINA'TRENTAI OCHO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:
BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMITTEE ON RULES OF I MINA'TRENTAI OCHO NA LIHESLATURAN GUÅHAN:

WHEREAS, born in Savannah, Georgia, Dr. Samuel V. Roundtree is the first child of five (5) siblings, and he shares his life with his wife, Yolanda Ann Harris, and their daughter, Scheherezade; and throughout his illustrious life and career, he set many "firsts" for himself and his family as Dr. Roundtree's life is marked by a series of pioneering achievements. He broke barriers by being the first in his immediate family to attend college, the first to earn four (4) academic degrees, and the first African-American to attain the position of Business Director at NAVFAC Marianas. Notably, he was also the sole recipient of the prestigious NAVFAC Peggy Craig Award for sustained superior government service; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Roundtree prioritized education and understood the power of knowledge and skill building. He studied Industrial Technology at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, graduating with a Bachelor of Science, and received his Master of Administration from Central Michigan University and a Doctorate in Organizational Leadership from Argosy University, Hawaii Campus. He was also awarded an Associate of Applied Science in Aerospace Warning Technology from the Community College of the Air Force; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Roundtree proudly served his country with distinction, retiring as a Lieutenant Commander in the Supply Corps of the U.S. Naval Reserve, marking the end of a long and impactful military career. His military tours include serving as the Aerospace Warning Systems Control Operator, U.S. Air Force, from 1973 to 1979; Vehicle Maintenance Analyst/Maintenance Controller, U.S. Air Force, from 1979 to 1981; Aerospace Weapons Control Tech, Air National Guard, from 1984 to 1988; Supply Division Officer, Naval Reserve (NR), Guam Unit 120, Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Marianas, from 1988 to 1992; Executive Officer NR, Naval Supply Depot, Pensacola, Unit 108, from 1992 to 1994; Administrative Officer, NR, Volunteer Training Unit (VTU) 3006G, Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Marianas, from 1994 to 1997; Supply Department Head, NR, VTU 3006G, Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Marianas, from 1998 to 1999; Executive Officer, NR, VTU 3006G, Commander, U.S. Naval Forces Marianas, from 1999 to 2002; Executive Officer, NR, VTU 3005G, Commander, Naval Forces Japan, from 2002 to 2005; Headquarters Company Commander, Training Assistance Group, 41st Combat Brigade, Operation Enduring Freedom, Kabul, Afghanistan, from 2006 to 2007; Executive Officer, NR, Naval Base Support, Guam, from 2007 to 2008; and Commanding Officer, NR, Naval Base Support, Guam, from 2008 to 2009; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Roundtree's commitment to his country did not just end with his service in the United States Armed Forces but continued afterwards in his civilian life, serving in the federal civil service for fifty-one (51) years with twenty-five (25) of those years directly contributing to the development and well-being of the island and its people. Dr. Roundtree's federal civil service career biography includes: serving as Business Director, NAVFAC Marianas, from 2007 to the present; Business Manager, NAVFAC Far East, from 2002 to 2007; Business Manager, Navy Public Works Center (PWC) Guam, from 1999 to 2002; Transportation Department Head, PWC Guam, from 1997 to 1999; Management Analysis Officer, PWC Guam, from 1994 to 1997; Management Analysis Officer, PWC Jacksonville, from 1992 to 1994; Management Analysis Officer, PWC Guam, from 1988 to 1992; Supervisory Management Analyst, Directorate of Resource Management's (DRM) Army Performance Oriented Reviews and Standards (APORS), Fort Stewart, Georgia, from 1986 to 1988; Management Analyst, DRM APORS, Fort Stewart, Georgia, from 1986 to 1988; and Senior Operations Analyst and Production Controller, Naval Air Rework Facility, Alameda, from 1981 to 1984; and

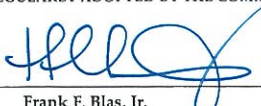

WHEREAS, throughout his career, Dr. Roundtree has been awarded with multiple decorations both in the military and federal service; and his military decorations include the Meritorious Service Medal Gold Star in lieu of second award, the Global War on Terrorism Medal, the NATO Medal, the Afghanistan Campaign Medal, the Military Outstanding Volunteer Service Medal, the Navy Commendation Medal, the Navy Achievement Medal, the Air Force Commendation Medal, the Air Force Good Conduct Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the National Defense Medal with Oak leaf, and the United States Armed Forces Reserve Medal with "M" Device; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Roundtree's dedication to service extends beyond his professional achievements as he is deeply rooted in a profound commitment to community enrichment. He has consistently demonstrated a passion for uplifting others, serving as a mentor and role model, particularly within underserved populations. His involvement in numerous community initiatives reflects a genuine desire to foster positive change and create opportunities for personal and collective growth. Dr. Roundtree understands that true leadership is not confined to the workplace or military service; it is about actively contributing to the betterment of society, ensuring that all individuals have the chance to thrive. His unwavering commitment to community service serves as a testament to his character, highlighting his belief that service to others is a fundamental responsibility and a cornerstone of a meaningful life; now therefore, be it
